The Walking Dead— Donald Trump as an enemy of 'Greater Israel' living every day of his candidacy in Netanyahu's crosshairs

By Mark Glenn, 2016

Just as thunder, lightning, and wind announce an impending storm, likewise, certain political rumblings oftentimes dictate likely futures, and one of those very-likely 'tomorrows' figuring powerfully in world events may very well be a short speech by Sen. Marco Rubio following the assassination of one Donald J. Trump that might sound something like this—

'There are no words, no condolences that suffice in expressing the grief that all Americans feel tonight at the terrible tragedy that's taken place...On a political level, yes, Donald was my adversary, but there is no doubt that he was also a true American who believed in his country, and in the end, he paid the ultimate price for doing so. I for one will not allow his death to go in vain, but instead vow to all of you, the great people of America, that as President I will continue the work that Donald sought to accomplish in repairing this great country of ours. May Donald rest in peace and may God bless the United States of America...'

Trump's assassination would (of course) be 'officially' tagged on the usual one-size-fits-all suspects within the 'clash of civilizations' paradigm that seems to predominate in all upheavals today—some 'Islamic' group incensed at his recent statements concerning Muslim immigration into the U.S. as well as his fictitious assertion concerning the 'thousands of Muslims' celebrating in Jersey City, New Jersey on the morning of 9/11.

His real killers however will not be ISIS, ISIL, Al Qaeda or some other variant of artificially-created Islamic terrorism that's been cooked up in some spy kitchen in Langley, Tel Aviv, London, Riyadh or wherever. Rather, Trump's demise will be the handiwork of radicalized followers of that other backwards, intolerant cult hailing out of the Middle East who have adjudged him to be an infidel, a blasphemer deserving of death and someone who poses a clear and present danger to the existence of their long-dreamed of Caliphate...

Not jihadists from the 'Islamic' State, but rather Juhadists from the Jewish state...

Anyone watching the dramatic—or rather, 'jramatic'—political events taking place as of late involving Donald Trump would had to have been schnoozing away in some barely-conscious state of existence to avoid noting that an open, no-holds-barred war has been declared against his candidacy on the part of those organized Jewish interests in the West who see the money, military might, and moxie of America as rightfully theirs by virtue of Judaic eminent domain.

Unlike anything witnessed in recent political history, both sides of the right/left Zionist matrix have put aside whatever minor differences exist between them and have joined forces in preventing at all costs Trump from becoming the next occupant of 1600 Pennsylvania Ave, Washington D.C.

Similar to the biblical warlord Joshua and his Israelite army assailing the walled city of Jericho with trumpet blasts and shouts prior to its invasion, destruction, and incineration, likewise not a day goes by where the world is spared the ear-splitting noise generated by the Jewish mainstream media, both in America and throughout the West, working in tandem to bring down Trump's campaign. Hatchet pieces intimidating his being an incestuous child molestor, that he would 'nuke Denmark' to threats from powerful Israeli operatives such as William Kristol that Trump's nomination to the Republican ticket would result in the 'Grand Old Party'—a mainstay in American politics now for almost 200 years—being wiped off the political map, the organized assault against his candidacy resembles some Old Testament plague that is seemingly unstoppable and inescapable.

In understanding how politics in the US works—and particularly those politics dominated by 'special interest' groups whose sole 'special interest' is the well being of another country, Israel—Trump, politically-speaking, was a dead man walking before he had even hiccuped his intention to run for the Presidency.

His independent wealth (making him a free agent and beyond the reach of Jewish money and its paralyzing influence) his independent opinions, his willingness to say or do whatever needs to be said or done in 'sealing the deal' meant/means that his chances of securing the blessings of La Kosher Nostra for this particular business venture were as likely to materialize as a leopard changing its spots.

Given that the end result of this regularly-scheduled beauty contest in American politics taking place every 2, 4, and 6 years directly affects the fate of Israel, all can be assured that long before the various contestants came strutting down that political catwalk that the self-appointed/self-anointed 'Judges' of that contest spent years—even decades—studying their lives, affections, predilections, etc, in gauging how useful Mr or Miss America would be in furthering the interests of the Jewish state.

As it pertains to Trump, it was decided decades ago in the aftermath of various business dealings and engagements involving him, both on Wall Street and within a New York real estate market as kosher as Manischewitz that in any political position outside of county dog catcher he would not be 'good for Israel'. Both his independent coin and independent compass meant that he was beyond their reach, a point he himself acknowledged when he recently addressed the Republican Jewish Coalition and (rightly) attributed their cold reception to his candidacy to his not wanting their money and thus being beyond their control.

Just as all can be assured that there is a concerted effort on the part of the Judean Peoples' Front to prevent Trump getting enough shareholders' votes to ascend as Chairman of the Board, likewise all too can be assured that Trump—savvy business operator that he is who keeps his ear to the ground, listens attentively to the talk on the street and knows how the JPF operates—also knew a long time ago the forces that would be arrayed against him and is therefore playing his own game against them as well.

The reason it will be Rubio making 'the big speech' in the aftermath of Donald's demise is because—just as his name 'Rubio' translates en español—he is indeed 'the golden boy' as far as Netanyahu and his fellow Likud members are concerned. Like a prostitute listing off the various services he or she is willing to render and for how much, Rubio has made clear how far he is willing to go in fulfilling all of Netanyahu's fantasies concerning a 'revitalized' U.S./Israeli relationship (with the former assuming the prostrate position in the face of the latter's demands) to say nothing of all the war in the Middle East and beyond which Netanyahu has—with his own blood-jotted down on his 'to do' list.

Rubio has promised that as el Presidente he will see to it that Iran is put back in the American crosshairs, that Russian jets flying over Syria will be shot down and that Israel will be given a free hand whenever feeding time for the beast rolls around and she engages in one of her periodic blood binges, be it in Gaza or wherever.

'I get by with a little help from my friends...'

All can be assured that on 21 November 2015, when presidential hopeful Donald Trump announced at a campaign rally in Birmingham, Alabama that he personally witnessed 'thousands of Muslims' celebrating in Jersey City, New Jersey on the morning of 9/11, tidal waves of panic swept through the organized Zionist community both in America and in Israel.

Not because such a statement was 100% factually bankrupt with no truth to it whatsoever. Those at the top of the Zionist interests food chain, including but certainly not limited to groups such as ADL, the American Jewish Committee, AIPAC, to say nothing of Mossad itself—understood immediately the documented and historical significance associated with Jersey City, New Jersey and the 'Middle Easterners' whose celebratory activities taking place on the morning of 9/11 led to their arrest, detention, and 2 months of intensive questioning by the FBI.

Nor was this panic based on concerns that such statements—taking place in the midst of what is now an inferno of Zionist-engineered anti-Islamic hysteria gripping much/most of the West—would inevitably lead to increased hatred of/violence towards Muslims. After all, organized Jewish groups—and especially their parent corporation, the Jewish state—have profited nicely off of the 'clash of civilizations' between several billion Christians and Muslims that began almost immediately after 9/11, a fact stated unequivocally by none other than Benjamin Netanyahu himself when he spoke of the 'immediate sympathy for Israel' that would be generated by all the death, destruction, and human misery that took place that day.

Rather, this panic on the part of those enchanters and spellbinders tasked with keeping the American mind intoxicated and entranced in favor of Israeli interests was due entirely to their knowing what would be the inevitable result of such statements being made by a man like Trump, whose every word is attentively heard and weighed by tens (hundreds?) of millions of Americans on a daily basis. Given that this strange meme—the 'celebrating Muslims of New Jersey on 9/11'—has never been discussed before, amidst all the millions of words spoken about the events of that day covering a time span of 15 years means that introducing such a LOUD and controversial statement into the political discourse at this moment can have but one result—extreme curiosity on the part of those hearing it for the first time.

More dangerous to Israel than the curiosity itself however is what must surely take place as a result of that interest, where in this, the 'information age', hundreds of millions of fingers would begin typing away at various internet search engines, using words such as '911' 'New Jersey' 'dancing' 'celebrating', etc, which then—through the algorithmic process known as SEO or 'Search Engine Optimization'—opens a very problematic door for a certain group of individuals desperate to keep Americans in the dark about some of the lesser-known events of that day, and especially those events described in news stories with problematic titles such as 'Were the Israelis Detained on Sept. 11 Spies?' that was published by ABCNews and which read in part, to wit—

'Millions saw the horrific images of the World Trade Center attacks, and those who saw them won't forget them. But a New Jersey homemaker saw something that morning that prompted an investigation into five young Israelis and their possible connection to Israeli intelligence.

Maria, who asked us not to use her last name, says she saw three young men kneeling on the roof of a white van in the parking lot of her apartment building. The men were taking video of themselves with the World Trade Center burning in the background, she said. What struck Maria were the expressions on the men's faces. "They were like happy, you know...They didn't look shocked to me. I thought it was very strange," she said. She found the behavior so suspicious that she wrote down the license plate number of the van and called the police. Before long, the FBI was also on the scene, and a statewide bulletin was issued on the van.

The plate number was traced to a van owned by a company called Urban Moving. Around 4 p.m. on Sept. 11, the van was spotted on a service road off Route 3, near New Jersey's Giants Stadium. A police officer pulled the van over, finding five men, between 22 and 27 years old, in the vehicle. The men were taken out of the van at gunpoint and handcuffed by police.

The arresting officers said they saw a lot that aroused their suspicion about the men. One of the passengers had $4,700 in cash hidden in his sock. Another was carrying two foreign passports. A box cutter was found in the van. But perhaps the biggest surprise for the officers came when the five men identified themselves as Israeli citizens.

According to the police report, the driver of the van, Sivan Kurzberg, told the officers, "We are Israeli. We are not your problem. Your problems are our problems. The Palestinians are the problem." The other passengers were his brother Paul Kurzberg, Yaron Shmuel, Oded Ellner and Omer Marmari.

When the men were transferred to jail, the case was transferred out of the FBI's Criminal Division, and into the bureau's Foreign Counterintelligence Section, which is responsible for espionage cases. One reason for the shift, sources told ABC NEWS, was that the FBI believed Urban Moving may have been providing cover for an Israeli intelligence operation.

The FBI searched Urban Moving's offices for several hours, removing boxes of documents and a dozen computer hard drives. The FBI also questioned Urban Moving's owner. His attorney insists that his client answered all of the FBI's questions. But when FBI agents tried to interview him again a few days later, he was gone.

Three months later 2020's cameras photographed the inside of Urban Moving, and it looked as if the business had been shut down in a big hurry. Cell phones were lying around; office phones were still connected; and the property of dozens of clients remained in the warehouse.

The owner had also cleared out of his New Jersey home, put it up for sale and returned with his family to Israel.

Steven Gordon, the attorney for the five Israeli detainees, acknowledged that his clients' actions on Sept. 11 would easily have aroused suspicions. "You got a group of guys that are taking pictures, on top of a roof, of the World Trade Center. They're speaking in a foreign language. They got two passports on 'em. One's got a wad of cash on him, and they got box cutters. Now that's a scary situation."

The five Israelis were held at the Metropolitan Detention Center in Brooklyn, ostensibly for overstaying their tourist visas and working in the United States illegally. Two weeks after their arrest, an immigration judge ordered them to be deported. But sources told ABCNEWS that FBI and CIA officials in Washington put a hold on the case.

The five men were held in detention for more than two months. Some of them were placed in solitary confinement for 40 days, and some of them were given as many as seven lie-detector tests.

Since their arrest, plenty of speculation has swirled about the case, and what the five men were doing that morning. Eventually, The Forward, a respected Jewish newspaper in New York, reported the FBI concluded that two of the men were Israeli intelligence operatives.

According to Vince Cannistraro, former chief of operations for counterterrorism with the CIA who is now a consultant for ABCNEWS, many people in the U.S. intelligence community believed that some of the men arrested were working for Israeli intelligence. For the FBI, deciphering the truth from the five Israelis proved to be difficult. One of them, Paul Kurzberg, refused to take a lie-detector test for 10 weeks — then failed it, according to his lawyer. Another of his lawyers told us Kurzberg had been reluctant to take the test because he had once worked for Israeli intelligence in another country.

The men denied that they had been working for Israeli intelligence out of the New Jersey moving company, and Ram Horvitz, their Israeli attorney, dismissed the allegations as "stupid and ridiculous."

Mark Regev, the spokesman for the Israeli Embassy in Washington, goes even further, asserting the issue was never even discussed with U.S. officials.

"These five men were not involved in any intelligence operation in the United States, and the American intelligence authorities have never raised this issue with us," Regev said. "The story is simply false."

Many U.S. government officials still believe that some of them were on a mission for Israeli intelligence.

As to what they were doing on the van, they say they read about the attack on the Internet, couldn't see it from their offices and went to the parking lot for a better view. But no one has been able to find a good explanation for why they may have been smiling with the towers of the World Trade Center burning in the background.

According to ABCNEWS sources, Israeli and U.S. government officials worked out a deal — and after 71 days, the five Israelis were taken out of jail, put on a plane, and deported back home.

While the former detainees refused to answer ABCNEWS' questions about their detention and what they were doing on Sept. 11, several of the detainees discussed their experience in America on an Israeli talk show after their return home.

Said one of the men, denying that they were laughing or happy on the morning of Sept. 11, "The fact of the matter is we are coming from a country that experiences terror daily. Our purpose was to document the event."

That Trump's statement concerning the 'thousands of Muslims' in New Jersey cheering the events of 9/11 touched a raw nerve was apparent from the beginning. The same Jewish mainstream media in America that never misses an opportunity in throwing buckets of gasoline on the already-out-of-control inferno known as Islamophobia in America immediately leapt into action, denouncing Trump as a bigot and castigating his

'celebrating Muslims' assertions as outrageous and baseless. Salvo after salvo was launched, Op Eds and news pieces were blasted across both the print and electronic media, all of which obviously aimed at shooing away otherwise curious eyes from the internet-based ticking time bombs just waiting to go off in the minds of the American people curious to know more about just who was 'celebrating' on the morning of 9/11. Besides the obvious panic on the part of the JMSM, other indicators as well suggested that indeed Trump's statement was having the dreaded effect Israel's supporters feared. When it was obvious that Trump was not going to back down from his statement, despite the organized screeching campaign being waged against him and that the cat was already out of the bag so to speak, pro-Israel websites then flooded the internet with stories 'proving' Trump was right and that indeed 'Muslims' were celebrating in New Jersey on the morning of 9/11.

The stories and Op Eds 'proving' Trump was right-aimed at stopping people dead in their tracks from digging any deeper-were sewn together from a small number of pieces written immediately after the attacks that day but which then received no follow-up coverage in the days, weeks, and months that followed.

Nevertheless, indeed curious eyes were flocking to the internet and researching Trump's allegations, as evidenced by none other than the front page of the abcnews.com website itself, which, a mere few days after Trump's initial statement and all the hullaballu that it created, listed the Israeli espionage story as the #3 most read piece for that day, something quite telling in and of itself, given that the story is almost as old as 9/11 and not likely to be such a popular item some 15 years after its initial publication.

But of all the noise generated in the aftermath of Trump's statement concerning the monkey-business taking place in Jersey City, New Jersey on the morning of 9/11, the one piece of commentary indicating that indeed he had struck gold in terms of Judaic angst came from no less than the ADL itself, considered the domestic arm of Israel's intelligence service Mossad with tentacles spread throughout the world and who responded to Trump's statement in part to wit-

"It is unfortunate that Donald Trump is giving new life to long-debunked conspiracy theories about 9/11...This seems to be a variation of the anti-Semitic myth that a group of Israelis were seen celebrating as the Twin Towers fell...His comments are irresponsible, not to mention factually challenged."

So, in other words, the ADL recognized IMMEDIATELY the 'connection' between Trump's assertion and what actually took place on the morning of 9/11 involving 'the 5 dancing Israelis' who later that day-AFTER BEING SEEN BY WITNESSES CHEERING AND CELEBRATING-were indeed arrested, held for over 2 months and subjected to intensive questioning by the FBI.

Recall as well that according to the piece published by ABC-as well as similar pieces appearing in publications no less 'mainstream' than the [Jewish Daily Forward](http://Jewish Daily Forward) -the 'conspiracy theories' about Israelis 'celebrating as the Twin Towers fell' which the ADL claims have been 'debunked' have in fact been confirmed and substantiated by the most powerful law enforcement agency operating within the United States, the FBI.

It is a proven fact that the ADL is an opportunistic entity that is constantly sticking its big nose into places where it doesn't belong. It attempts to masquerade the fact that it is for all intents and purposes a spy agency in the service of a foreign government-the Jewish state-by periodically attaching itself to 'domestic' issues dealing with racism, bigotry, etc.

In this case however, the ADL was not running to the defense of innocent Muslims unfairly accused of cheering at the destruction that took place on the morning of 9/11 as much as it was running to the obfuscation of the Israeli spies who were in fact arrested that day, and, attempting once again to keep this problematic information out of sight and therefore out of mind as far as the American people were concerned.

This was not the first time that ADL marshaled its resources in stifling public awareness of this very same subject.

In a piece written by freelance investigative journalist Christopher Ketcham for Counterpunch entitled What Did Israel Know in Advance of the 9/11 Attacks?, Ketcham writes that in the wake of 9/11 and the devastating 4-part series Fox News broadcast dealing with Israeli spying in America and its direct ties to 9/11, that then-president of the ADL Abraham Foxman directly intervened to have this 'conversation' stopped dead in its tracks and the problematic information contained therein scrubbed from Fox News' archives, described in part by Ketcham to wit-

'Abraham Foxman, telephoned executives at Fox News' parent, News Corp., to demand a sit-down in the wake of the Cameron reportage. The source said that Foxman told the News Corp. executives, "Look, you guys have generally been pretty fair to Israel. What are you doing putting this stuff out there? You're killing us".'

Ketcham then writes that within 4 days of this meeting, the transcripts disappeared, replaced by the message, "This story no longer exists".

That the ADL, the most powerful Zionist advocacy group in America outside of AIPAC, would insert itself into this little 'jrama' on behalf of the Islamic community when the JMSM, both in America and throughout the West, is working overtime in denigrating Islam as much as possible in the interests of furthering the same 'clash of civilizations' that Netanyahu all but gigglingly discussed with American media right after 9/11 reveals the extent to which organized Jewish groups viewed the entire 'Muslims celebrating in New Jersey' meme as a ticking time bomb that could have disastrous results for the Jewish state if not contained.

Clearly, the various entities that work day and night in keeping the American mind properly-poisoned in such a way that Israel's interests are furthered understood that Trump's statement had just set in motion something that could have all sorts of systemic and sustained problems for Israel and for the chokehold that she maintains over the American political process. It does not take someone gifted in palm reading to see the result of Americans finding out that for 15 years there was an entire chapter of the 9/11 narrative dealing with a group of Israeli spies cheering at the deaths of 3,000 Americans on 9/11, deaths that resulted in-

1. America embroiling herself in several senseless, needless wars that have all but destroyed the American economy,

2. The deaths of tens of thousands of American men and women serving in the U.S. Armed Forces,

3. The U.S. being put in a confrontational posture with a nuclear-armed Russia over the issue of Syria, –And that later, these spies were later sent back to Israel, where shortly thereafter they appeared on a television program and revealed that they were sent by their government to ‘document the event’ of 9/11, indicating clear foreknowledge on the part of ‘America’s only ally in the Middle East.’

In other words, what the Zionist apparatus in America feared as a result of the sudden Trump-generated public interest vis a’ vis 9/11 was the political equivalent of large, dangerous animal waking up from some previously-administered anesthetic keeping it manageable, and upon waking, would then tear to pieces all those in its immediate environment attempting to capture and imprison it. The obvious result of such an awakening would be something akin to 9/11 itself, where the seemingly indestructible structures making up the ‘special relationship’ between the US and the Jewish state would come crumbling down.

And especially if the ‘celebrating Muslims in Jersey City, New Jersey’ meme was just one of several ‘surprises’ that Trump was capable of pulling out of his black bag of political magic tricks. After all, given his momentum and his seemingly impossible-to-contain public support, how difficult would it be for him to begin other discussions—as LOUD and as controversial as the previous one—around events such as Israel’s attack on the USS LIBERTY, the Lavon Affair, the assassinations of 2 brothers named Kennedy, the bombing of the Murrah federal building in Oklahoma City, Jonathan Pollard, Monica Lewinsky, etc, etc, etc?...

...or, better yet, even for him to offer a retraction and an apology, something along the lines of—

‘I, Donald J. Trump, do hereby retract my original statement that there were ‘thousands of Muslims’ celebrating in Jersey City, New Jersey on the morning of 9/11. My staff, after looking into the matter and speaking with law enforcement officials who were involved directly with the events of that day, have learned that in fact it was not Muslims who were celebrating that day, but rather 5 Israeli intelligence officers who were then arrested, held for questioning for more than 2 months and then sent back to Israel, after which time they admitted on Israeli TV that they were sent to America to ‘document the event’. I sincerely apologise if my comments offended anyone in the Islamic community.’

And all can be assured that something along these lines was precisely what Trump was prepared to do, and that in some fashion—back door or otherwise—he let those goombahs making up the organized Jewish power structure working against his candidacy know that this might be the next ‘surprise’ coming out of his black bag of political magic tricks if certain concessions favorable to him were not met.

All can abandon the notion that Trump somehow found himself in the midst of some ‘senior moment’ and that he ‘misremembered’ hearing that Muslims were celebrating on the morning of 9/11. The possibility that in the midst of this terrible event taking place on 9/11—IN TRUMP’S BACKYARD no less—and that with all the well-connected and influential people that he knows, from police to intelligence to military, along with with his access to ‘inside’ information not readily available to the average Joe 6-Pack on the street, that somehow, amidst all the kibitzing that had to have taken place in the hours, days, weeks, and months following that he did not hear with his own ears some variation of ‘Did you hear about the 5 Israelis arrested on the morning of 9/11 in Jersey City, taking pictures of the Twins and joking about it?’ lies somewhere between the improbable and the impossible.

Indeed, Donald Trump, a big shark in a tank full of other big sharks, a man who makes sure to know from A to Z the particulars of a business venture long before he commits himself to any investment, knew when he stood on that stage in Birmingham, Alabama on 21 November 2015 that the ‘cheering Muslims’ in New Jersey on the morning of 9/11 were in fact not Muslims at all, but rather Jews working for Israeli intelligence, a skeleton which Israel and her supporters desperately need to keep hidden away in that closet.

The obvious question that must be asked therefore is—why would he do such a thing? Why set in motion ‘jrama’ such as this, knowing what kind of noise and controversy something like this must by its very nature create?

The question basically answers itself—controversy, or better yet, scandal. The topic of the ‘5 dancing Israelis’ arrested on 9/11 is the stuff of coercion and of gaining concessions from an uncooperative adversary but doing so in such a way that the general public is unaware of the fact that a gang war is taking place right in their midst.

Politics, and especially today, where powerful Jewish interests figure so prominently—is nothing more than ‘civilized’ gangsterism. ‘Business’ takes place in the atmosphere of threats, innuendo, betrayal, blackmail, sabotage, subterfuge and, when necessary, violence. The notion that the good of the country is decided upon after long, careful consideration by selfless civil servants working in close cooperation and who have only the best interests of the country at heart is as much rooted in reality as are the stories involving the Tooth Fairy and the Easter Bunny. Nor is there any respect for notions of fair play or ‘may the best man win’. It’s not as much survival of the fittest as it is survival of the fiercest, a situation where whatever must be done to win will be done and with no apologies offered before, during, or after.

Having said this, what America—and indeed the entire world—witnessed with the entire ‘celebrating Muslims on 9/11’ debacle was a shot across the bow from Trump & co towards those powerful Jewish interests chewing away day and night at his chances for winning the presidency. By ripping open the old wound of 9/11 and using the ‘celebrating Muslims’ motif as the dull, rusty, scalpel for doing so, what Trump & co were saying to the Kristols, Krauthammers, Adelsons, Singers, et al who are indeed working in close cooperation with each other and with other as-of-this-moment unnamed individuals, both in the US and Israel, in making sure he does not win is that there are all sorts of skeletons in the political closet that Israel would really rather not be made part of the public discourse, and that with a mouth like his and with the hundreds of millions of ears who are glued to it, he could bring down the whole house of cards faster than these jermitees who are gnawing away at the American political structure can get on a plane and head back to Israel, where their true allegiance lies.

Other evidence suggesting that indeed a very serious yet nuanced gang war is taking place between Trump and the organized Jewish power structure out to scuttle his presidency has been manifested in other ways as well.

Exactly 1 month after Trump's now-infamous 'celebrating Muslims' comment in Birmingham, a protestor at a rally in Michigan who managed to make his way to the front row confronted Trump and shouted from a mere few feet away that it wasn't Muslims who were arrested on 9/11, but rather 5 Israeli Jews.

Predictably, the crowd reacted as virtually all Americans have been programmed to react when anything untoward is uttered about 'America's only ally' in the Middle East, which is to shout down the accuser like a herd of braying jackasses, but Trump's reaction was very curious and—all can be assured—unnerving to the powerful pro-Israel interests who heard what he said as the protestor was being escorted out of the rally—

'Be nice to him...He's one of us...'

Any other candidate faced with the same situation would have—for the sake of their own political neck—roused the crowd to fits and to fury, denounced the heckler as an anti-Semite, a neo-Nazi, a conspiracy theorist, and put as much distance between themselves and such ideas as possible.

Trump's response was 'Be nice to him, he's one of us', saying in a very nuanced way that the heckler's statement was not in conflict with Donald Trump or his campaign and that it was ok for others to adopt the same kinds of theories if they wanted to.

Which brings this conversation around to the next level in what is an already multi-level and complicated operation, which is that in all likelihood, Trump's use of the word 'us' has more meaning to it than some would imagine, something much deeper and which involves more than just the superficial and overly-simplistic 1st person plural pronouns most people would assume.

The first possibility that curious watchers of the Trump phenomenon should consider is that there is more to this thing than simply Donald J. Trump. And no, not just in the sense that he has campaign workers, friends, family members, millions of supporters, etc, but rather that he has 'friends' in very high places who have as much—if indeed not more—a vested interest in him becoming President as he does.

Although there has been no public mention of it yet per se, nevertheless it can be safely assumed that given his money, his contacts all over the business world (that overlap with the politics of various nations, especially in the Middle East) and his ability to read/engage with people on a very high-stakes level that someone of Trump's caliber would had to have been approached at some point by one or more branches within the American intelligence community, most notably the CIA. A country such as the U.S., that strives to maintain full-spectrum dominance in world affairs, where the American military and the American dollar wield equal influence in maintaining the status quo for Pax Americana means that someone such as Trump would be seen as an indispensable set of eyes and ears in getting a better picture of what goes on in far-away places. After all, why go to the trouble, with all the associated risk, of tasking the NSA with eavesdropping on the phone conversations of various world leaders when they can get a first-hand account from someone who was in the room while the conversation was taking place?

Having said this, and despite whatever denials may ensue from Team Trump as a result, it is neither irresponsible nor unrealistic speculation to wonder whether or not at some point in the future, the beans will be spilled in some memoir, written either by Trump himself, some close business associate, or even one of his children, who will scribble something therein along the lines of 'Daddy used to do things for the C.I.A. but never talked about it.'

This is not to say or even suggest that Trump is a full-fledged agent/officer of the CIA, that he graduated from 'the Farm' in Langley, carries a gun, has a set of skeleton keys and a hollow tooth containing cyanide to be used if he is captured and fears being tortured for classified information. Intelligence agencies maintain all sorts of 'irregular' relationships with persons of varying backgrounds who are utilized in certain ways that contribute towards meeting the needs of whatever a particular situation demands.

Given his influence, his travels, and his international contacts with people operating at the very top of the food chain in terms of business, finance, politics, media, etc, Trump is exactly the kind of 'go to' guy that an agency such as the CIA would 'go to' in various circumstances, and in return for his 'consultation services', would be thrown a bone or two in the form of inside information that might help him with a particular business deal he happens to be negotiating in some locale somewhere.

This being the case, it is also by no means any stretch to speculate as to what kinds of friends in high places are assisting Trump with his Presidential campaign while remaining in the shadows and thus comfortably out of public sight.

That there is a contingent of people working within the US intelligence community who know full well what really took place on 9/11 and who understand that if drastic measures are not taken soon that the US will become a footnote of history is now an established fact. In the aforementioned piece appearing in Counterpunch, Christopher Ketcham writes of what his sources told him concerning the 'mood' of those US intelligence agencies tasked with investigating 9/11, to wit—

"There is a lot of frustration inside the FBI about this case...They feel the higher echelons torpedoed the investigation into the Israeli New Jersey cell. Leads were not fully investigated". Intelligence expert and author James Bamford described similar frustration within the CIA: "People I've talked to at the CIA were outraged at what was going on. They thought it was outrageous that there hadn't been a real investigation, that the facts were hanging out there without any conclusion."

One of the first indications that a change of seasons had taken place and that there was some pushback against Likud's hijacking of the U.S. presidency in the wake of 9/11 was evidenced by the release of the National Intelligence Estimate in 2007. To the surprise of many, and certainly to the fury of Netanyahu and his Likud party who recognized the implications associated with the release of this official statement—the 16 intelligence agencies tasked with putting together up-to-date intelligence estimates on certain hot-button topics stated clearly and with absolutely no wiggle room that Iran was not working towards the development of nuclear weapons.

The political earthquake this document caused was something along the lines of an 11 on the Richter scale, even though strictly speaking it is supposed to go no higher than a 10. The moment the official finding was made public, Netanyahu, Likud, and all those jermite-spies and saboteurs every one-working in the American media, tasked with conjuring up the black magic needed for seducing (again) the collective American mind into going to war for Israel's benefit—now found themselves with a formidable adversary—none other than the US intelligence community itself, or at least certain neighborhoods within it.

Yes, as much as it may contradict certain pre-conceived notions held by many, all can be confident of the fact that within the US intelligence community, there are persons—powerful individuals with pull and with resources—who know exactly what took place on 9/11, and, more importantly, who know where it is all headed. More than anyone else, they are fully aware of the fact that 9/11 was an act of arson meant not just to incinerate the Islamic world, but as well the United States, Europe, Russia, China, and anyone else Israel has deemed must be 'wiped off the map' as a preparatory step to bringing about the long dreamed-of Caliphate which Netanyahu and his fellow juhadists refer to as 'Greater Israel'.

And it is these individuals, operating within the inner sanctum of not just US intelligence but also the US military, who understand just how serious the stakes are, who recognize that 9/11 was the trigger for a bigger scheme in seeing certain countries and civilizations destroyed in some modern recreation of the biblical tales recounting the destruction of Egypt and Persia and who are waging their own private war against it.

Put another way, as stated by U.S. Admiral William Fallon, former Commander of CENTCOM, revealing that he was just one amongst a larger group of powerful individuals working in close cooperation with each other in circumventing and preventing the next phase of a period of overt American hostilities in the Middle East—'There are several of us trying to put the crazies back in the box.'

And the reason why at this time Trump no doubt has help from these kinds of powerful forces 'trying to put the crazies back in the box' can be summed up in 2 words—Marco Rubio.

Again, as indicated earlier, Rubio is clearly the 'Golden boy' and the favored son in terms of Likud's plans for re-capturing the White House after 8 difficult years under Barack Obama. Rubio has garnered the affections of virtually the entire Neocon/Likud establishment in the U.S., from Jewish billionaires like Sheldon Adelson and Paul Singer to the uber-vocal support of the same jermite responsible for engineering the election of George W. Bush in 2000 and in steering his administration into launching the present wars in the Middle East that were originally cooked up in the infamous 1996 policy paper 'A Clean Break' written for then-Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu.

Rubio, in all his statements and policy positions, from his slavish, prostitute-esque willingness to engage in whatever greasy, sleazy task is demanded of him from 'Big daddy'—meaning Israel, including but not limited to war against Iran and even war against nuclear-armed Russia, has made Kristol clear the fact that he is a creature of Likud, and on this basis, all can be confident of the fact that the moment he strolls into the White House, the United States and indeed the entire world will step into a time machine of sorts and be transported back to the good ol' days of George W. Bush, the man once-described by Russian President Vladimir Putin as a maniac waving a razor blade in peoples' faces.

The present 'Arab Spring'—The Neolib mechanism of destroying the Middle East for Israel's benefit through the covert use of proxies—will be replaced with the overt use of American military power, and the world will watch in horror as the U.S. resumes its previous silver screen role as Lord High Executioner of millions of Syrians, Iranians, Lebanese, and just about every other group of persons Israel has decided needs to be massacred.

And as hard as it is to imagine, given the immensity of the American-wrought death and destruction that's taken place in the Middle East over the last 25 years with both the collusion and cooperation of the Intelligence and Military establishments in the US, nevertheless there are semi-sane persons within both institutions who recognize the nature of the game being played, who have calculated the trajectory to all of it and who for reasons related to their own self-preservation have decided that it has to stop. Doing the same kind of numbers game that Trump himself would do in overseeing a particular business venture, these same types understand that the mathematics involved in the 2016 election are very simple and yet very serious, namely that Marco Rubio + 1600 Pennsylvania Ave = the dissolution of the United States.

It is for this reason therefore that intelligent watchers of the present political drama can rightly speculate that indeed there is more to the candidacy of one Donald J. Trump than meets the eye...That at the vortex of this contest is a massive power struggle taking place, albeit in ways which seem to elude the notice of the average Joe 6-pack, and that in terms of human history, nothing in the past can compare in terms of the high stakes that are now involved. It must be remembered that the types likely helping Trump along in this endeavor are professionals, types who understand human psychology like a master chef understands spices and recipes and who know exactly how to tickle, tweak, tantalize, and titillate the raw emotions of large groups of people in order to get the reaction needed for certain geo-political aims. It is these types therefore likely coaching Trump on certain positions he has taken, from the 'celebrating Muslims on 9/11' to halting Muslim immigration to his contrarian statements on the destruction of Iraq and Libya to keeping Assad in power and of repairing relations with Russia.

Trump—A Clear and Present Danger to 'Greater Israel'

All of which of course can have but one result as far as 'America's only ally' in the Middle East is concerned—Fury, rage, panic, paranoia and everything in between on the part of Benjamin Netanyahu and his extended Likud family, who are now looking at the prospect of another 4 (8?) years of intransigence, obfuscation and humiliation due to yet another American president who refuses to 'get with the plan'.

And it is for this reason therefore that these types, driven by the mad, maniacal, messianic operating system on their mental hard drives, have—as evidenced in the news coverage and daily commentary taking place everyday—'downgraded' Trump's status as a potential Presidential candidate.

Day by day, like a pack of hyenas surrounding a lion, they nip at his heels in attempting to wear him out and drive him off of the political Pridelands of the United States. Never before in US history—save for the Likud-engineered cacophony surrounding the Monica Lewinsky affair—has a politician or someone running for public office been subjected to the kind of relentless, open, no-holds-barred evisceration on the part of organized Jewish interests as witnessed as of late involving the candidacy of Donald Trump.

More importantly, as far as Trump, the United States and indeed an entire world standing on the precipice of an Israeli-engineered nuclear war are concerned, the 'Teflon Don' has been declared not just persona non grata, but indeed, the walking dead. All of his positions, including his heretical statements concerning an 'undivided Jerusalem' (which Netanyahu & co view as the capital of their future Caliphate) coupled with his positions regarding Syria, Iraq, Libya, Iran, Russia, China, etc, have made clear to Netanyahu & co that the mathematics involved in the 2016 election are—as far as their thousands-of-years-old designs are concerned, very simple and yet very serious—

Donald Trump + 1600 Pennsylvania Ave = the dissolution of 'Greater Israel'

...For if indeed, as speculated here, there is a concerted effort on the part of well-placed and well-resourced individuals to put a halt to the present 'clash of civilizations' that threatens to bring about the very Apocalypse that has been the predictive stuff of prophets and prognosticators for thousands of years, it may very well be not just a minor interruption for a period of 4 or 8 years, but rather a dismantling of the entire nightmare, brick by brick, not one stone being left upon another, until finally, and not a moment too soon, the nightmare of Zionism and of Jewish power is brought to an end in a modern day re-creation of Rome's destruction of Judea in 70 A.D.

And it is for this reason then that Trump lives everyday of his candidacy in the crosshairs of Netanyahu, the man who characterized the death and destruction taking place on 9/11 as 'good' for all the 'immediate sympathy' it would generate for Israel.

Remember as well, that as far as Netanyahu and his extended family in Likud are concerned, the 'Caliphate' known as 'Greater Israel' is not considered something transitory or trivial. It is nothing short of the will of Yahweh, the 'god' of the Jews, who made Kristol clear thousands of years ago the exact nature of this particular real estate deal known as Israel—

'On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abraham, saying "To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river Euphrates"...—Genesis, 15:18

And the only distinction that exists amongst those who adhere to the particulars of this property deed is whether that piece of property in question starts at the Nile and moves eastward to the Euphrates, encompassing almost the entirety of the Middle East, or whether it begins at the Nile and moves westward tens of thousands of miles until it meets up with the Euphrates, encompassing almost the entire earth.

Either way, that Donald Trump lives everyday of his life with a Judaic curse on his person is no longer some wild eyed/anti-Semitic conspiracy theory.

Applying the same reasoning that the Judaic leadership used in maneuvering and marshaling the forces under their control at the time in having a pesky rebel named Jesus of Nazareth removed from the political scenery, so too have the great, great grandchildren of yesteryear's Koshers Nostra Godfathers met in secret today, asking with obvious panic—

'What are we to do with this man?'

—only to receive as a response—

'You fools, you know nothing. Is it not better that one man die than that an entire nation perish?'

Justice Scalia's Sordid Simulacrum

By Michael Hoffman

www.RevisionistHistory.org, 15 February 2016

I can be on guard against my enemies, but God deliver me from my friends!* - Charlotte Brontë

"Traditional Catholics" and allegedly "conservative" Protestants are engaged in ecstasies of praise for the life and career of the late Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia, who passed away at age 79 on February 13.

Some of Mr. Scalia's acolytes will expect this writer to hop on their bandwagon, in light of the fact that Justice Scalia was the son of Sicilian immigrants and by his own hard work and the high IQ with which God blessed him, he rose to the top of the judiciary in America. He and his wife had nine children. He was said to be an opponent of abortion, illegal immigration and some aspects of gun control. Legend has it that he was a proponent of a strict construction (interpretation) of the Constitution as it was originally written.

The preceding curriculum vitae is attractive indeed, and if we were fixated on symptoms, surface appearances and situation ethics we too would join the fanfare for the judge. Alas, we cannot. Perhaps Mr. Scalia's enthusiasts don't discern as we do the power of an evil in this world that emanates directly from the Crucifixion of Jesus Christ on Calvary. Perhaps they do not suffer as we do from that power.

The ideology that wrought that evil is alive and more virulent than ever. It is an ideology, not a race. The racial heirs to the evil have long since been dispersed to the four corners of the earth and throughout mankind. We could no more genetically determine who is a descendant of the Pharisees of AD 33 than we can identify a descendant of the Caesars. The infamous statement, "Let his blood be on us and our children" refers to a few generations of Jews in the first century, not to the Khazars and mixed multitude who masquerade as Jews today. Yes, of course, there are still authentic racial Judeans ("Jews") on earth, but we know not who they may be.

The virus of the mind that killed Jesus Christ can, however, be readily identified. This spiritual force radiates from within Orthodox Judaism and its Kabbalistic offshoots Freemasonry and cognate occult fraternities such as Yale University's Skull and Bones. Materially, it manifests in the intelligence agencies and secret police of many nations, including the U.S. Most of the ones fawning over Justice Scalia imagine that the FBI thoroughly investigated the assassination of our late Catholic President John F. Kennedy, and did an equally fair and judicious assessment of the attack on the Murrah Building in Oklahoma City in 1995, and the Twin Towers and the Pentagon in 2001. They assume that the FBI, the Department of Justice and the Federal Judiciary of which Scalia was one among the nine highest in the nation, are not the enforcement arm of the government of so-called "Israel" and its immensely powerful lobby in America. Those assumptions are wrong. As he traveled the nation delivering speeches to institutes of higher learning, Scalia had a stratospheric bully pulpit from which he could have called for redressment of the crimes of the Cryptocracy. He did nothing of the kind.

We believe that to whom much is given much is expected. With great power comes commensurate responsibility to right the wrongs and confront not the symptoms of evil, but the core of it. In all of these respects Antonin Scalia was guilty of criminal neglect or outright complicity.

The fog of evil which forced Pontius Pilate to allow the crucifixion of Jesus Christ was institutionalized ex post facto in the sacred texts of the Pharisees and those of their spiritual heirs, comprising the Babylonian Talmud, the texts of Rashi and Maimonides, the Shulchan Aruch of Joseph Karo, the Mishnah Berurah, the Kitzur Shulchan Aruch, the Tanya, etc. Among mentally retarded Republicans there is alarm over the supposed "imminent threat!" of the imposition of Islamic "Sharia" law on America. Meanwhile, there is not a trace of awareness that Talmudic "halacha" (rabbinic law) has already been imposed on the United States; a crime against the Gospel of Christ which the recently deceased justice aided and abetted.

"Strict constructionist" Scalia never mentioned that the bane of our judiciary the making of law not by the legislature, but by judicial decision is derived from halacha. How was the abominable crime of conferring marriage upon homosexuals made the law of the land? It was made by a Supreme Court court engaged in legislating through judicial decision the hallmark of the halachic method of law-making. Few would deny that Scalia was brilliant, yet this brilliant jurist never alerted the American people to the rotten rabbinic root of the judicial process that rendered "gay" marriage the law of the land. How could he, when he endorsed and participated in the training of a generation of American lawyers in halacha?

No aspect of Sharia law has had any effect on America anywhere near comparable to the impact of halachic law on our nation, and yet all we hear from the likes of Franklin Graham, Ted Cruz and millions of Right wing "evangelical" parrots is Sharia, Sharia, Sharia. Trained seals think more clearly than this benighted bunch.

Mr. Scalia's vast fan club howl their outrage at "gay" marriage, to zero effect. They battle the dragon's fire but leave the dragon intact, as did their hero when he voted against legalizing the marriage of sodomites while refusing to reveal the halachic modus operandi that effected it.

The Scalia bunch comprise that peculiar Right wing fraternity, Losers, Inc. The task of Losers Inc. is to manage the decline of the Republic going from defeat to defeat because, we regret to say, they dare not, in their cowardly souls, utter a word of God's Truth about Talmudic Judaism. Truth is the sword that can uproot the serpentine evil that extends from the murder of Jesus Christ to the sacrifice of unborn children to abortion, the marriage of sodomites, and the criminal politics which killed a president, and murdered thousands of Americans in Oklahoma City, the Twin Towers, and on the battlefields of the Muslim civil wars which rage perpetually across the sea.

In 2000, in Bush v. Gore, Scalia employed the power of the Supreme Court to make a Skull and Bones snake the President of the United States; that snake then proceeded to foment 9/11 and the Purimfest known as the invasion of Iraq, which resulted in the catastrophic decimation of Christianity in that Arab nation and the deaths of hundreds of thousands of people.

The judge is not only guilty of cooperating with rabbinic halacha and the Babylonian Talmud, Mr. Scalia was an active participant in burnishing the reputation of those dark doctrines and spreading their diabolical influence. His sin is not just of omission, it is of commission. He openly worked for what his handlers termed "Synagogue and State." This "great friend of the Republic" assisted with the Talmudic training program for future lawyers at the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, a part of the leading Talmudic institute of higher education in America, New York's Yeshiva University.

On November 6, 2013, at the "Synagogue and State" conference at Yeshiva University's Zahava and Moshael Straus Center for "Torah" (Torah sheBeal peh, i.e. the oral "Torah" the Talmud), Rabbi Dr. Meir Soloveichik, director of the Straus Center, introduced Scalia as follows, "It is an immense honor to welcome a justice of the United States Supreme Court who is also recognized as one of the most brilliant jurists of our age to the Straus Center. I am especially delighted that we will be able to feature Justice Scalia in conversation with Yeshiva alumnus Nathan Lewin, whose extraordinary legal career is a source of great pride to our University."

Scalia's close friend and Talmudic crony, Nathan Lewin, served as the attorney for AgriProcessors, allegedly one of the worst and most inhumane kosher slaughterhouses in the nation. Lewin is on record advocating that the family of Palestinian suicide bombers their mothers and fathers, for example should be executed by the Israelis. In 1994, in the case of Board of Education of Kiryas Joel Village School District v. Grumet, Lewin argued before the high court for the creation of a school district based on the boundaries of the Satmar (Hasidic) synagogue-community. Justice Scalia believed that Talmudic synagogue-schools should have taxpayer support. He wrote a passionate defense of his vote in favor of the taxpayer subsidy advocated by his pal, Mr. Lewin.

The "pragmatists" will say that we are setting too severe a standard; that Justice Scalia is loathed by the Left and many secular Zionists, and that, while not perfect, he did his best to slow the decay processes sweeping the land. In return, they say, we should overlook the fact that he made common cause with the heart of evil. This is the sickness on the Right: compromise with evil for the sake of some imaginary greater good. We ask with the Apostle Paul, "What fellowship hath light with darkness?"

Justice Scalia was among the most dangerous of subversives. Under color of his Catholicism, "family values" and defiance of various symptoms of evil, he advanced the powerful Talmudic institutions which enlarge the stature and authority of halachic law over our nation. No liberal could have accomplished this betrayal of our once Christian country so well as Antonin Scalia, "the peerless Conservative Justice."

In 2009, Judge Scalia took part in a daylong conference of the Institute of American and Talmudic Law, chaired by Rabbi Shlomo Yaffe and Rabbi Noach Heber. The Institute operates under the auspices of the Chabad Lubavitch Hasidim, who place a heavy emphasis on the inculcation of the doctrines of the books of black magic known as the Kabbalah. Chabad-Lubavitch was founded by Rabbi Shneur Zalman. Its most revered text after the Talmud and the Zohar is Zalman's Tanya, which decrees that gentiles are "supernal refuse" and that Jesus Christ was an idolatrous occult imposter.

At the Institute of American and Talmudic Law, Justice Scalia, the alleged Catholic paladin of the movement to restore America and the Constitution, apologized to the 300 assembled rabbis and other "dignitaries," over the fact that he had not managed to study a page (Daf Yomi) of the Talmud every day, which is strongly advised for Orthodox Judaic males. Scalia said, "I assume I'm here to talk about federal law because I must confess that my Daf Yomi attendance has been lackluster."

Imagine the reaction if Scalia had participated in a daylong conference of German nationalists and apologized for not reading Mein Kampf daily. The uproar would still be resonating on the other side of the galaxy. But a "traditional Catholic" Supreme Court judge who fronts for the Talmudic infiltration of America's legal system, and grovels before hundreds of rabbis about his neglect of the most demonic book ever compiled by a major religion of the world, is no less a "great American" for having done so?

If we are labeled "extremists" because we won't partake of these Faustian bargains and wink at the profound confusion and misdirection sown by Judge Scalia, then we accept the designation. Christ would have us be either hot or cold. After a while the "pragmatism" which confers hero status upon Scalia begins to look a lot like a chain of retreat and compromise that spells defeat for Jesus Christ's commission that His Father's will "be done on earth as it is in heaven."

A Right wing that imagines that the Talmudic rabbis are our allies in the struggle for family values, or at most a subsidiary adversary far down the list of threats, has lost the battle before the first shot is fired.

The more we mistake symptoms for causes, while shying away from the root of the iniquity that is tearing at the foundations of our nation, the more we dig the graves of our children. A movement that has for its paradigm Scalia's sordid simulacrum of Conservatism, conserves nothing.

A curious case of Moty Cristal, Chabad, and Israeli militants in Odessa

By Scott, February 16, 2016 30 Comments

On Sunday, February 14th, an English RT's Senior Political correspondent Anissa Naouai interviewed Moty Cristal, a self proclaimed specialist on terrorism, an attorney, founder of Israel-based Nest Consulting LTD. On his twitter account Mr. Cristal names his fields of expertise as "Negotiator. Trains & consults worldwide on complex negotiations and crisis management. Political activist & designer of operational networks."

Threats \(S3E16\) Published time: 14 Feb, 2016 07:38 Interview starts at \(14:50\)

Normally, I would treat this sort of interview as a self-advertisement, at the expense of Russia's taxpayers. However, Mr. Cristal went way far from the beaten path of national security officers peddling their business. He presented an ethno-genesis theory for the modern jihad movement, only very slightly reflective of Lev Gumilev's, and concluded that Islamo-fascism is unbeatable, as long as Islam exists, because Islam today is the same "age" Christianity was at the time of the Inquisition. He offered to examine the age of culture. He also implied that Islamo-fascism is a historical and logical development of Islam, and that's why there are no methods to stop terrorism and to defeat it.

Drawing parallels between terrorism and religion, Moty Christal forgot to clarify what age Judaism was at the beginning of 20th century, when followers of this religion orchestrated the Red Terror in Russia after the anti-government coup, or "color revolution" in 1917.

Very recently, during the blunt attempt to take over the Schneersohn library, Israel and the Chabad-Lubavitch organizations had threatened Russia with prosecution, similar to the process over Hitler's Germany, claiming that Soviet government was persecuting people of Jewish nationality. Since Germany has reduced to a trickle its enormous payments to the state of Israel and other Jewish organizations, they have decided to find another cash cow, and to milk the Russian people instead. I have very few doubts that if Russia had surrendered the Schneersohn collection to Chabad, it would then face claims of a holocaust of Jews in Soviet Russia.

In August 2010 a federal judge in Washington, Royce Lamberth, ruled that the Hasidim proved the legitimacy of their claims to the ancient Jewish books and manuscripts, opening a very curious precedent for treating ownership of arts and antiquities in accordance with their creators' provenance and nationality. Say, British museums are packed to the brim with stolen art, manuscripts and artifacts. Using the decision of this court, the countries of origin should just immediately demand the return of all those treasures that were stolen from them by the British. First, the British so called "royal family" should return one the Russian Imperial crowns that was stolen from Russia, and that their queen is not ashamed to wear publicly.

The case of the Schneersohn library is relevant here, due to the message that President Putin conveyed at a meeting with representatives of the European Jewish Congress in September 2014:

"The decision to nationalize the Schneersohn library was made by the first Soviet government, members of which were Jews. There was about 80 to 85% of Jews in this government. However, it was them who, directed by false ideological considerations went to conduct repressions and arrests of many Orthodox Christians and followers of Judaism, and representatives of other religions, including Muslims. They combed up all.[meaning, they were repressing and arresting everybody in the country.] These ideological blunders and false ideology, thank God, have collapsed."

What's not in this video is a statement of fact that they collected an enormous amount of documents to substantiate his statement. Essentially, President Putin told to the representatives of the European Jewish Congress that it was Russia that might start the tribunal process on the account of the holocaust of Russians by the first Soviet government that was 80 to 85% Jewish, the rest were ethnic Ukrainians, militants from the Baltics, and also Georgians, and Polish militants.

Considering, that 90% of my family had perished during the Red Terror, and considering that my parents have never received any compensation for the death of their relatives neither from Jewish organizations, nor from Germany, I am in full support of such undertaking.

Notably, President Putin's statement made the right impression, because claims for the return of the collection and other reparations had died out immediately. But not without some terror acts, like an arson at the library of the Russia's Academy of Social Sciences INION in Moscow in February 2015, that destroyed a huge amount of documents pertaining to the holocaust and also to the history of Jews in Russia, and the Soviet Union.

Coming back to this very curious actor, Moty Cristal, who has been a professor of Professional Practice in Negotiation Dynamics at the Moscow School of Management Skolkovo since 2011.

In one of his tweets, Mr. Cristal complains that his "client" "cynically inserted him into Hotel Ukraina in Moscow" with the view of the flags of the EU and Israel, and the view of Russia's Parliament building. The same building that was targeted and burned during the US takeover of the Soviet government, with the direct participation of the Israeli security services.

What Israeli national security people are teaching Russian specialists, poisoning their minds with fallacies and recruiting future members of the Russian elite as Israeli secret services agents?

Are there any Russian Orthodox military or national secure officers teaching in the Technion, in Jerusalem University, in Haifa University?

What kind of views do these "political activist" have towards Russia and it's government?

I also would want a disclosure on what kind of "operational networks" this "political activist" designs in Russia and for whom? Who are his clients?

What propelled me to write this post, is not just a statement by Mr. Cristal that violent Islam follows in the footsteps of violent Christianity. The Islamo-fascism from its very beginning was socially-engineered and funded by the governments of the US and EU members and Israel. It's useless to keep insisting that jihad is a historical process coming from the within of the Islam, when the US authorities openly admit that it was them who midwived the terrorists into existence. "... the US and Turkey created ISIS, are arming and funding it to this very day, and are using the existence and atrocities of their own proxy forces."

I find it uncanny that the Russia Today interview with Mr. Cristal coincided with the February 14th 2016 SANA News report on a seizure in Syria of a large amount of ammunition made in Israel. Earlier on Saturday, the Syrian government authorities, in cooperation with the popular committees, seized hundreds of U.S. and Israeli-made anti-tank mines loaded in a pickup in the western countryside of Sweida. The weapons were bound for the terrorists in eastern al-Badiya (desert). The arms and ammunition which were confiscated included 7 Israeli-made anti-tank rocket launchers, 62 shells, 128 RPG shells of different kinds, 43 120 mm mortar rounds, 42 82 mm mortar rounds and 100 23 mm machinegun bullets."

I was also intrigued as to why Moty Cristal has never mentioned one of the most horrific terrorists attack in the past two years, the burning alive of over a hundred Russian people in Odessa by Ukrainian ultra-nationalists who weren't Muslim fundamentalists.

Coincidentally, as if in response to the reports of the seizure of Israeli shipment of arms to the terrorists in Syria, a Ukrainian journalist Vladimir Kornilov posted his research into the burning of people in Odessa on May 2nd, 2014.

"Immediately after the Odessa Khatyn, I reported on the curious Israelis who actively participated in the events of May 2.

If you remember, I have reported about the video that a British journalist recorded in the center of Odessa with the use of his Google glasses. In the video, we can see a group of English speaking foreigners in the midst of a crowd of Ukrainian Nazis. One of them says to the journalist that the group was directly participated in these events. (He states it openly on the video). Speaking in a fluent English he says that he is a citizen of Israel and the USA. Suddenly, he realizes that he is being recorded on video. He loses his mojo, his English suddenly "deteriorates" and he retreats. His hands are protected by rubber gloves, and his accomplices are holding some tubes, bottles, packages.

When I reported this video, I was suddenly attacked from different sides. At first, it was said that I made it up, and that there was no video with the Israeli in it. After I presented this video showing the guy who clearly calls himself a citizen of Israel, I got screamed at that this guy "just misspoke", that he "blurted it out without thinking" and that most likely he was an Arab, and not a Jew. Even so, I have never said anything about his ethnicity.

Well, getting back to the subject. I just found some photos of this gentleman by the name Gonen Siboni. In first photo, he is in Odessa on may 2, 2014. And on the other three images. He is in 2008. Do you recognize the uniform he is wearing? Is it Palestinian or the IDF?

In anticipating of "so what?", I just want to note: neither in my first post, nor today do I argue that this fighter of the IDF is guilty of something. It's possible that he, being a medical student, happened to be in the crowd of murderous Nazis, and accidentally started to help the wounded. As he now claims. But, there are a number of legitimate questions. For example, why did they accidentally walk through Odessa with medical equipment, and wearing rubber gloves? How did they know in advance that someone will be killed and wounded? Or, why did this fighter suddenly forget English when he realized that he was being recorded?

Back, in May 2014, I had recommended to question these IDF soldiers, in order to clarify their role in the event. (I reiterate: Siboni voluntarily told to the British journalist that he was participating in this event!). At the very least, it was the Ukrainian SBU that make a statement that for the burning of Russians in Odessa some kind of strange chemicals were used. In this regard, it is legitimate to ask those Israelis what kind of substance was in their tubes and bottles, right? Do you think authorities have asked this question from this activist? Oh, I doubt!.

On May 7th, 2014 he had posted on his page in the social network vkontakte (Russian facebook): "Home!" (Presumably, was quickly evacuated to Israel). Since then he has been laying low. He's silent to this day. Curious, isn't it?.."

The victims of terror and their families deserve justice and swift revenge. If terrorist wannabes knew that revenge will come to them fast and furious, they would be less inclined to participate in activities like burning women, children and men alive in Odessa. There is an investigation conducted by Russia's law enforcement. If Gonen Siboni is not a terrorist, he has nothing to hide. He should go to Moscow and talk to the investigators about what had happened in Odessa. If he had helped injured people, as he claims, those people should be alive and they should be able to confirm that he and other Israelis from his group helped them. He should reveal who were the other people in his group. Law enforcement should be able to question them also.

Since he is hiding and refuses to talk to law enforcement, it means that he lies and that he was killing people along with the Ukro- terrorists.

I don't understand why we have to treat Islamo-terrorists differently from Ukro-terrorists and Judeo-terrorists? They all work for the same organizations.

I also beg to differ with Mr. Cristal, on the account of persistence of terror. What does it tell him when CIA Director John Brennan says that they knew about upcoming acts of terror in Paris?

If we see terrorism for what it is, the Western governments' psy-ops to destabilize countries, then we will find the way to put an end to it.

In his interview to Anissa Naouai, Mr. Cristal talks about the comprehensive strategy of the fight with terrorism. He suggests that we have to go after the terrorists and physically kill them, we have to go after their leaders and physically kill them, we have to go after their money and bank accounts, and we have to go after the members of their families. He also says that we should only negotiate with terrorists to gain time to gather intelligence. There are no reasons why we would have any agreement with terrorists. This is what Israel does. Those are acceptable international practices.

This baldy claims to be an expert, maybe we should start following his recommendations?

Who Shot Down Facebook?

Mike Walsh February 16, 2016

Who shot down Facebook? It seems internet guru Mark Zuckerberg is guilty. The hapless enterprise has achieved notoriety as the social forum department of what was once referred to as mainstream media. Online despot Mark Zuckerberg, much derided by anti-Israeli commentators, has been making the headlines for all the wrong reasons. Unsurprisingly the sobriquet attached to Facebook is now Failbook.

The CIA controlled forum's popularity is worse than waning; it is in free-fall. Google Trends, the most respected of the various data analytical research bodies revealed, "Within 36 months Facebook users will be back to 2008 levels." The report, taken seriously by the industry, concludes by saying, "Facebook will struggle to stay relevant to users' lives."

Zuckerberg's collaboration with despised German Chancellor Angela Merkel, according to some experts, has hastened the demise of Facebook. Others say, International condemnation of Facebook by millions opposed to Israel's abuse of human rights has been strident. This follows Zuckerberg's vow to delete anti-Israel comment and to disable the accounts of those who express concern at Israeli or Merkel policy. This will further isolate a social media icon whose income is largely derived from the American version of the KGB, the notorious Central Intelligence Agency (CIA).

Are Facebook's days numbered? No, not for those who enjoy coffee morning convention. For the real world, Facebook's fall from grace is good news. Tens of millions of those who make up the more astute section of society will refer instead to truly independent news disseminators like the one you are now reading.

The blow-back from disablement can be compared to the gun-democracies failed anti-Russian sanctions policy. It is a defeatist strategy wet-dreamed up by those whose alternative means of persuasion deserted them.

It reduces the CIA's flow of information. It boosts interest in rival social media; disablement obliges users to extend their information needs to less controlled media. As a consequence Facebook, like its string-pullers, now finds itself in a no-win situation. The more users they disable the more their rivals cheer.
