

ADELAIDE INSTITUTE

PO Box 3300
Adelaide 5067
Australia
Mob: 61+401692057
Email: info@adelaideinstitute.org
Web: <http://www.adelaideinstitute.org>

Online
ISSN 1440-9828

June 2016 No 973

From: Old Fritz

latter_day_old_fritz_the_first@yahoo.com

Sent: Saturday, 28 May 2016 3:13 PM

Subject: NEW EDITION:

"Is Babylon falling and our Banking System"

Banks are not really banks anymore, they only deal with fiat currency and 99 % computer entries, that is todays monetary system. Computer entries. And if you aren't allowed to create them with a computer-entry, then you are not part of the 1 % or global mafia. It's not like people are not having enough anxiety attacks. Sheesh--- -- They are all going crazy! Card carrying nuts! To this, see "Anonymous Hits New York Stock Exchange, World Bank, The Fed., & Vatican-Total Media Blackout" on following Web-Site:

Anonymous Hits New York Stock Exchange, World Bank, The Fed., & Vatican – Total Media Blackout

Anonymous Hits New York Stock Exchange, World Bank,...

As the banking elite struggle from dozens of digital attacks -- the media has gone entirely silent. The International Banksters' Global Carbon-trading is connected to Global Climate-Fraud and following web-sites deal with it:

The Hack That Warned the World

The Hack That Warned the World

Europe's carbon-trading market was supposed to be capitalism's solution to global warming. Instead, it became a playground for gangsters, international crime syndic...

*<http://www.carbonradewatch.org/pubs/cns.pdf>

*<http://australiafirstparty.net/csiro-indulgence-in-the-climate-cult-means-its-funding-comes-way-behind-abbotts-12000-syrians-on-welfare/>

<http://australiafirstparty.net/australian-greens-hypocritical-about-co2-emissions/>

<http://carbon-sense.com/>

Ethan Nash of the Brisbane 9/11 movement and TOTT-news reports about the 'Big Four' banks in Australia. Find his analysis on

Analysis: Who really owns the 'Big Four' banks in Australia?

Analysis: Who really owns the 'Big Four' banks in Australia...

Who really owns the Big Four banks? Photo: Credit Card Compare Australia's 'Big Four' are not merely big, they're massive. Their combined assets in 2013 s...

On the above-named web-site you can also find related content about how Australian banks - financing companies accused of land grabs, child-labour and more.

In this regard also find out who really owns the Reserve Bank of Australia:

WHO REALLY OWNS THE RBA? \(RESERVE BANK AUSTRALIA\)

WHO REALLY OWNS THE RBA? RESERVE BANK of AUSTRALIA

NSW-Premier Mike Baird, who supports the land grabbers, cracks down on anti-mining protesters and wants to sent them to jail for seven years, has strong banking connections and Israeli instructors:

<http://australiafirstparty.net/mike-baird-in-israel-for-dictatorship-training/>

In the History of Australia, there were some men who wanted to expose the banking-swindle and you can read how they did it on following web-site: <http://www.adelaideinstitute.org/newsletters/Newsletter%20775.pdf>

Also these days, there is Allan Jones and he educates people about the banking-swindle and people wealth. See his web-site for more information:

<http://www.australianpublicbankpolicy.com.au/>

Related web-sites to this are:

<http://www.larryhannigan.com/exposingevil.htm>

<http://www.larryhannigan.com/EarthPlus.htm>

This banking-swindle, which is imposed by the Globalists onto Australia, demonstrates, that Australia is not an independent country. To this read an academic essay about the true cause of Australian independence on following web-site:

<http://australiafirstparty.net/australianidentity/australian-nationalism/academic-essays/the-true-cause-of-australian-independence/>

However, as there is inaction of the public and our leadership is mad, the social collapse is may be not preventable. To this see more on following web-site: Waiting For The Collapse

Waiting For The Collapse

Did you know that there are 5 "too big to fail" banks in the United States that each have exposure to derivatives contracts that is in excess of 30 trillion doll...

Financial Armageddon Approaches: U.S. Banks Have 247 Trillion Dollars Of Exposure To Derivatives

I went a little bit more into this matter. The Australian Tax office is investigating 800 Australians identified in financial record leak:

The Australian Tax Office investigates 800 Australian residents named in a massive leak of tax and financial records known as the Panama Papers. Tax office investigating Australians identified in Panama Papers leak

The Panama Free Trade Agreement, which allegedly allowed and made the abuses documented in the Panama Papers worse, was supported by President Barak Obama and former Secretary of State and current presidential candidate Hillary Clinton:

The Panama Papers are a leaked set of 11.5 million confidential documents that provide detailed information about more than 214,000 offshore companies ...

Panama Papers - Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia
View on en.wikipedia.org

Now, they want to give as all the free trade-agreements, like the Trans-Pacific Partnership Agreement. The Lima Declaration has done the damage already. All in the interest of the International rich crooks which have only one interest, namely to destroy the Nation-states and make everyone on the Globe working their guts out for them.

More information to this on:

Explained: What are the Panama Papers?

A massive data breach shows how a global industry of law firms and big banks sells financial secrecy to politicians, fraudsters and drug traffickers.

View on www.abc.net.au

A torrential leak

A huge trove of documents has revealed the secrets of offshore business, presaging tougher times for tax havens.

View on www.economist.com - A torrential leak

I have the feeling, the whole international financial crook business hits exposure by having their shit hitting the fan now.

The Citizens Electoral Council of Australia was out yesterday and they distributed information about the coming bail in, you all can go for to die for.

"The confiscation of depositors' funds through "bail in", for which the Bank for International Settlements (BIS) and its Financial Stability Board (FSB) had sought legislative approval in all mayor nations, is now being imposed come hell or high water, notably in A ustralia by dictatorial decree":

http://cecaust.com.au/releases/2016_03_22_Bail_In_P_R.html

The Australia First Party is fighting against the destruction of the Australian Nation - State:

<http://australiafirstparty.net/>

And stupidity makes that all possible:

DEPRESSING SURVEY RESULTS SHOW HOW EXTREMELY STUPID AMERICA HAS BECOME >> Four Winds 10 - Truth Winds

.....MORE OF THE SAME.....

Iran's Holocaust denial is part of a malevolent strategy

By Reuel Marc Gerecht and Ray Takeyh, 27 at 10:28 PM

Iranian Foreign Minister Mohammad Javad Zarif last month in New York. (Frank Franklin II/Associated Press) Reuel Marc Gerecht is a senior fellow at the Foundation for Defense of Democracies. Ray Takeyh is a senior fellow at the Council on Foreign Relations.

The Islamic Republic of Iran held another Holocaust cartoon festival this month, inviting the usual despicable cast of characters. Foreign Minister Mohammad Javad Zarif assured the New Yorker that although the event would proceed, Iran would ensure that the “people who have preached racial hatred and violence will not be invited.” Evidently, Zarif believes there are Holocaust deniers who do not harbor “racial hatred.”

As Iranian President Hassan Rouhani once remarked to CNN’s Christiane Amanpour, the Holocaust — the question of whether it happened and the dimensions of the slaughter — is really “a matter for historians and researchers to illuminate.” Crimes against humanity are bad, Rouhani averred, as he quickly glided over the Nazis’ anti-Jewish malevolence to similar crimes committed today, leaving no doubt for a Middle Eastern audience that he was talking about Israel. Among Iran’s ruling elite, Holocaust denial and the accompanying conspiracies about Jewish power are omnipresent and diverse, but they all have strategic intent. Anti-Semitism is not only central to the regime’s identity; it’s also inextricably tied to its soft-power propaganda aimed at the larger Muslim world, especially Arabs.

Anti-Semitism was part of Iran’s inception. The revolution’s father, Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini, spent much of his life indulging it. In Khomeini’s rendition, the Jews, always untrustworthy in Islamic history, are surrogates of Western imperialism who have displaced Palestinian Muslims and even distorted Islam’s scriptural texts. Khomeini’s hatred toward Israel exceeded even his disdain for America. The United States was a pernicious, seductive imperial power. But it was America’s conduct, not its existence, that the mullahs contested. Israel, on the other hand, was for Khomeini an unlawful entity, irrespective of its actual policies and behavior. No peace compact or negotiated settlement with the aggrieved Palestinians could ameliorate this essential illegitimacy. Israel must be wiped off the map.

Since the ayatollah’s death, Tehran’s efforts to delegitimize the Jewish state have continued, no matter who among the ruling elite has had the upper hand. Whether it’s those aligned behind Ali Khamenei (Khomeini’s successor), the revolutionary pragmatists backing Rouhani or the Islamic leftists who once rallied behind the reforming president Mohammad Khatami, attitudes toward Israel and the Holocaust have remained constant. For them, Zionism is a racist, exclusionary ideology that should be opposed not just by Muslims but also by all who care about human rights. Iran’s propaganda insists that Zionism was imposed on the region by force of arms, sustained by bloodshed and perpetuated by craven U.S. politicians beholden to domestic Jewish groups. Khamenei has gone so far as to claim that to ensure the compliance of U.S. politicians, “these Zionist capitalists both bribe and threaten them.” Even more: These Jewish American overlords “have murdered some of their high-ranking and great officials.” Anti-Semitism in Iran is an Orwellian voyage of ideology, where fiery sermons and conferences calling for the annihilation of Israel and denying the Holocaust have become the sanctioned language of the Islamic republic.

In foreign affairs, this antagonism to Israel enforces the clerical regime’s claims to regional leadership, especially at a time when the mullahs’ ecumenical message to Sunni Muslims has been compromised by Iran’s role in provoking and sustaining sectarian warfare in Syria, Iraq and Yemen. Iran’s anti-Semitic assault is one of the few rhetorical weapons the clerics can deploy that has broad popular appeal among Sunni Muslims. Arab leaders may envision agreements with Israel, but many of their constituents loathe the idea, especially in Egypt, which has a cold peace with Israel, and in Saudi Arabia, where royals unofficially flirt with Israeli officials in a great game to counter the mullahs.

In particular, Iran needs anti-Semitism and Holocaust-denial conferences that brandish its Islamist credentials to compete against the Saudi propaganda machine, which is running full-throttle against the Shiites, depicting Iranians as Muslim heretics and Persian usurpers eyeing Arab lands. From their global network of pulpits and Arab satellite TV channels, the Saudis call the faithful against a rapacious Iran and its Shiite insurgents taking over the ancient seats of Arab civilizations in Baghdad and Damascus.

And the clerical regime’s anti-Semitism will grow worse as the rewards of the nuclear deal increase. The mullahs no longer have to worry how the regime’s hatred of Jews plays in the West — the buffoonish character of former president Mahmoud Ahmadinejad is gone and sanctions are falling. The U.S.-educated Zarif is adept at handling Western officials and journalists. In his capable hands, Holocaust festivals become yet another reason to support Rouhani’s “moderates.” And Western opprobrium not reinforced with sanctions just affirms the correctness and utility of the mullahs’ anti-Jewish worldview. What matters most is the war for Muslim minds, and the clerical regime intends to exploit anti-Semitism for all that it’s worth.

https://www.washingtonpost.com/opinions/irans-holocaustdenialispartofamalevolentstrategy/2016/05/27/312cbc48-2374-11e6-aa84-42391ba52c91_story.html

AJC Honors Lipstadt, Abrams Makes Move BY JEWISH TIMES, MAY 27, 2016

The American Jewish Committee Women’s Leadership Board has honored Emory University professor Deborah Lipstadt and two others for their courage and vision in the service of humanity.

The recognition came in front of nearly 400 people at the organization’s spring luncheon May 5 in New York. The other honorees were Samia Sleman, a teenage Yazidi refugee, and Lauren Bush Lauren, the founder and CEO of FEED.

The ceremony took place just before Yom HaShoah, Holocaust Remembrance Day, a point AJC CEO David Harris emphasized in his keynote remarks. "We are living in a defining time when our cherished values are threatened," Harris said. "Here in the U.S. we have the gifts of freedom, pluralism, security and opportunity, together giving us the power to speak out and act. Yet these fundamental values, these gifts, are fragile. If we don't work to defend them, there are others who seek to destroy them and our way of life."

Harris also was the keynote speaker at AJC Atlanta's Selig Distinguished Service Award dinner on May 18.

Sleman, 15, received AJC's Voice of Conscience Award for her outspoken advocacy for international recognition of the genocide Islamic State is perpetrating against the Yazidi minority in Iraq. After surviving more than six months of brutal captivity and being sold and resold as a sex slave, Sleman escaped Iraq. She now lives in Germany.

Lauren received the AJC Women's Leadership Award for creating FEED, a business whose mission is making products to help feed the world. FEED bags and other products sold since 2007 have provided more than 87 million meals around the globe.

Abrams Makes Move

Amanda Abrams is leaving the Jewish Federation of Greater Atlanta to join the Marcus Jewish Community Center.

Abrams, who as Federation's senior vice president of strategy, planning and impact has shared management responsibilities with Chief Financial Officer Sheila Katz Cohen in the absence of a CEO, is taking the position of chief program officer at the Marcus JCC.

She'll thus be working under one new CEO, Jared Powers, instead of another, Eric Robbins, who starts at Federation in August. Her last day at the Selig Center is June 15.

"If you had asked me ten years ago, I never could have imagined that I would have spent a decade of my career in the Federation world, but it has been such a wonderful journey," Abrams wrote on Facebook. "I've had so many rewarding professional experiences and have had the opportunity to work with some very special colleagues and volunteers along the way."

Her departure leaves Robbins with multiple senior leadership positions to fill, including a replacement for Chief Development Officer Michael Balaban, who left in December to become the CEO of the Jewish Federation of Broward County, Fla.

DeKalb Thanks Chaplains

Former Congregation Shearith Israel Rabbi Hillel Norry was among some 80 volunteer DeKalb County Jail chaplains honored at a ceremony hosted by DeKalb Sheriff Jeff Mann on Thursday, May 12.

"Our volunteers are chaplains from all faiths, counselors and educators who give unselfishly of their time and talents to help inmates cope with being incarcerated while they await their court dates," Mann said. "We are truly fortunate to have them as members of our team because of the special services they provide and the cost savings their participation represents for the Sheriff's Office."

Rabbi Norry left Shearith Israel at the end of June 2015.

<http://atlantajewishtimes.com/2016/05/briefs-ajc-honors-lipstadt-abrams-makes-move/>

Anti-Semitism is on the rise, Spielberg warns in Harvard speech

In commencement address, award-winning director says he was wrong as a kid to think anti-Jewish sentiment 'was fading'

By JTA May 27, 2016, 11:57 pm

Acclaimed director Steven Spielberg admitted he was "wrong" to think as a child that anti-Semitism "was fading," telling Harvard's graduating class that President Barack Obama was right when he warned that "anti-Semitism is on the rise."

Spielberg, whose 99-year-old father Arnold sat in one of the first rows at his address before the Ivy League university's class of 2016, told the graduates Thursday that the world "is full of monsters" espousing "racism, homophobia, ethnic hatred, class hatred" and "religious hatred."

The Oscar winner also offered veiled criticism of Republican presidential nominee Donald Trump, known for his anti-migrant rhetoric. "We are a nation of immigrants — at least for now," Spielberg said, and urged the graduates to vote in the upcoming election.

"As a kid, I was bullied — for being Jewish," Spielberg recalled in his speech. "This was upsetting, but compared to what my parents and grandparents had faced, it felt tame. Because we truly believed that anti-Semitism was fading. And we were wrong. Over the last two years, nearly 20,000 Jews have left Europe to find higher ground. And earlier this year, I was at the Israeli embassy when President Obama stated the sad truth. He said: 'We must confront the reality that around the world, anti-Semitism is on the rise. We cannot deny it.'"

The 69-year-old powerhouse behind iconic movies such as "Schindler's List" and "Saving Private Ryan," as well as blockbusters like "Close Encounters of the Third Kind" and the Indiana Jones series, also spoke about his Shoah Foundation. The foundation has taken video testimonies of over 53,000 Holocaust survivors and witnesses in 63 countries since he founded it in 1994, he said.

The foundation is now collecting testimonies from genocides in Rwanda, Cambodia, Armenia and Nanking, he said, adding, "We must never forget that the inconceivable doesn't happen — it happens frequently."

Spielberg provided more details about his childhood brushes with anti-Semitism in a 1993 interview with The New York Times. In that interview, soon after "Schindler's List" came out, Spielberg, who grew up in Ohio, Arizona and California, recalled, "I was always aware I stood out because of my Jewishness. In high school, I got smacked and kicked around. Two bloody noses. It was horrible."

Facebook COO and Harvard alum Sheryl Sandberg, who is also Jewish, served as chief marshal of the ceremony.

<http://www.timesofisrael.com/anti-semitism-is-on-the-rise-spielberg-warns-in-harvard-speech/>